1 RESURRECTION

There are at least 8 to 9 cases in Scripture of men and women who were brought back to life by a prophet, an apostle, or by the Lord himself. It must be made clear that those deaths and bringing them back to life, in both the Old and New Testament, were special cases. They did not signify a resurrection of humanity but rather a miracle, performed for a divine purpose and not for the purpose of judgment and eternal accountability. Such resurrections did not result in the assignment of a penalty nor a blessing to the one who was raised; but rather for the glory of God and the affirmation of the man of God by which it was performed.

However, "The Resurrection" will occur only once and will bring back all the dead from every sector and circumstance without regard to how they died or where they were disposed of. And while there will not be another resurrection, there will be an eternal death for those who do not fair well in the resurrection because they have not honored God in their time on earth prior to death. (See John 5:26-30; I Cor 15:50-58)

Revelation 20:11-15 (ESV) states, "Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. From his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done. And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done. Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire."

There is only one resurrection and there will be no second chances following the resurrection. All our chances are during this life, and we have as many chances now as we have hours, days, and years. These are sufficient for us to discover our relationship with God and learn what to do and how to make amends for our sins. The dead that die in the Lord will have rest in death and the anticipation of hearing a "come you blessed of my Father" by Christ at the final day. The dead who did not obey the Lord will face the awful pronouncement by the Lord, "Depart from me ye cursed, into everlasting fire prepared for the Devil and his angels." That pronouncement is both tragic and final. These will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (Matthew 25:31-46)

From this second death no prophet or apostle will perform a miracle to bring anyone back. God makes no mistakes at the judgment and there will be no retrial, no appeal, no reversal, and no rebirth into a different person. The resurrection will finalize everyone's status for all eternity. There will be no tears shed for those in the eternal abyss and no regrets for those in the blessed eternity with God. All of the regrets will be in the souls of the disobedient and all of the joy will be in the souls of the saved.
